CERAMICS INTRO TO HANDBUILDING IN CLAY

WITH LIZBETH NAVARRO
In this workshop students will explore different hand building ceramics techniques. Pinching, coiling, slab construction and molds will be used to bring their creations to life. Students will also learn different glazing and surface design techniques.

GRAPHIC DESIGN 1

WITH STEVE SOBALVARRO
Explore the language of Design through Creative Problem Solving. Develop and discover your voice as we experiment, explore and create designs for print.

ANIMATION 1.0: THE ANIMATION SAMPLER

WITH ERICA LARSEN
Principles of animation will be explored using various techniques including optical toys, flipbooks, draw/scratch on film, sand, stop motion, pixilation and more. Students will gain a basic understanding of how to control movement at the frame by frame level and utilize the two different processes to plan and execute their animation. No animation or drawing experience necessary, but a spirit of exploration is required!

EAMON CANNON COMEDY PROJECT - COMEDY COMBO

WITH SUSANNA SPIES & JERAMI MONREAL
Got laughs? Do you like to laugh? Like to make others laugh? This is the place for you! This class welcomes you to be YOU, where you will learn how we can share your views and experiences of the world, into the common loved platform of comedy! You will learn a COMEDY COMBO! Group Improv games and activities, create characters, AND develop your own stand-up comedy routine, to share the fun and funnies into a culminating show!

FIND YOUR VOICE!

WITH MYRA FLYNN
The aim of this studio is to answer one simple yet somehow complicated question: what is my true voice? Youth will be guided through daily vocal exercises both classic and experimental to explore range, pitch and rhythm and delve further into song exploration using self-selected cover-songs (everything from pop to musicals) both in individual and group settings. Youth will take what they have learned about their unique voice and style and apply it to the chosen cover.

MASK MAKING

WITH BETH PETERSON
Design, sculpt, and paint masks from your imagination. Masks are one of the most ancient Art forms - found throughout the world. Learn about the history of masks and then create your own mask and through movement - bring it to life!

ACTING AS A CRAFT

WITH ELISA BOCANEGRA
"Become so good that you can't be denied." This exciting workshop is inspired by this quote by master acting teacher to the stars, Larry Moss. Led by Elisa Bocanegra, who studied with Moss for 14 years, students are guided through an exploration of acting technique, voice and movement with a goal to make them ready to enter a professional rehearsal room. Interested in acting in school plays, ICA shows and beyond? This class is for you!

DANCE TECHNIQUE

WITH SADIE YARRINGTON
10:00AM-11:30AM
This workshop focuses on the technical components of movement (strength, flexibility, balance, etc) in jazz, ballet and contemporary dance. This class is designed for students who want to develop their movement vocabulary.
PRE-REQUISITE At least 2 terms of Inner City Arts dance or 2 years of dance experience elsewhere is required.

GRAPHIC DESIGN 1: A DESIGNERS TOOL KIT FORM & SPACE WITH ASHLEY MARGO

Experiment with the building blocks of graphic design to create unexpected results. These formal and informal concepts of form and space set the stage for critical visual thinking and communication. Handmade and digital techniques will be explored.

MIDDLE & HIGH SCHOOL WORKSHOP

WORKSHOP HAS A PRE-REQUISITE

SATURDAY MID 11:30AM-1:00PM

INNER-CITY ARTS REPERTORY DANCE COMPANY

WITH MARISSA HERRERA

The Inner-City Arts Repertory Dance Company is an ensemble group of dancers who are dedicated to their art and creating original work. Dancers will explore various genres of dance including hip-hop, latin styles, contemporary and social dances. Dancers should have strong leadership skills and also be able to work within an ensemble. There will be opportunities to learn from possible guest artists and field trips. Attendance is mandatory.

PRE-REQUISITE: By audition only. Auditions will be Wednesday, February 5th at 4:30pm. For more info contact marissa@inner-cityarts.org

SATURDAY AFTERNOON 1:00PM-3:00PM

CERAMICS: HANDBUILDING & WHEEL-THROWING

WITH LIZBETH NAVARRO

In this workshop students will explore the fundamentals of handbuilding and wheel throwing ceramics techniques. Students will learn different glazing and surface design techniques to bring their creations to life. Intermediate and advanced students are encouraged to sign up to expand their creative thinking and personal expression through clay.

GRAPHIC DESIGN 2: TELLING A STORY THROUGH

COLOR WITH ASHLEY MARGO

Color is a powerful tool. In this workshop explore communicating with color, how it affects meaning, emotion, and colors relationship to form and space through a series of studies made by hand and digitally.

PRE-REQUISITE: At least 1 semester of Graphic Design 1 OR experience in Adobe Illustrator.

LIFE DRAWING

WITH STEVE SOBALVARRO

Students will draw from Life exploring Form, Line and Value. Various techniques and processes will be introduced in order to develop observational drawing skills. Class Exercises will include Still Life, Portraiture and Plein Air.

SONGWRITING

WITH MYRA FLYNN

Find your creative voice through music. This workshop will use pop-music to explore singing and writing refrains, hooks and melodies while also guiding students through original song development using basic song structure, feedback and refinement. Note: Although students will be working both lyrically and musically it is not necessary to either read music or play an instrument. But if you do play one, feel free to bring it! All levels of musicality are welcome.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON 1:00PM-4:00PM

ANIMATION 2.0: INTERMEDIATE ANIMATION

WITH ERICA LARSEN

This second-level class is designed for returning students interested in going deeper in their learning of animation. In this course we will explore digital animation with fun gif and meme projects and more! Animation history, theory, production processes will be threaded throughout.

PRE-REQUISITE: At least 1 semester of Animation 1.0.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON 4:30PM-6:00PM

WITH IVAN LOPEZ

This workshop will focus on creating sculptures using rope, yarn, natural, and up-cycled materials. Students will focus on experimentation through exploration of color, textures, shapes, and repetitive hand process.

FUNDAMENTALS OF DANCE & PERFORMANCE

WITH SADIE YARRINGTON

This workshop will focus on experiencing a range of dance styles (contemporary, hip hop, jazz & social dances) and the development of an ensemble performance piece to be shared at the end of the session. Everybody is welcome including those new to dance and those with prior experience!

ENTERTAINMENT DESIGN

WITH STEVE SOBALVARRO

Entertainment Designers bring stories to life for the Animation, Film and Video Game industry. Students will conceptualize and create their own original stories through the exploration of Character, Environment and Prop Design. Students will build worlds through the use of various (Digital and Traditional) Drawing, Painting and Sculpting techniques in order to make their vision come to life.

THE EYE IN VISION: THE PHOTO ZINE

WITH COLLETTE MCGRUDER

Participants will produce and edit content for a photography zine. Their work will be on display at the Printed Matter 3 day exhibition at the Geffen Museum of Contemporary Art in April. This course is ideal for intermediate and advanced level photography students as the focus will be on editing, layout and creating narrative through imagery. Guest artists will be on hand to emphasize the value of printing and publishing in the development of their understanding of photography and in advancing their careers.
